Augustinian Academy School News April 25, 2021

Changes to the guidance for schools to reopen full-time in-person have been made. The biggest change is the social distancing has been amended from 6 feet to 3 feet, but it comes with stipulations. At this time, we will not be changing our Reopening Plan. Since we have been able to have the students and staff in-person every day, we will continue to follow our original plan. The safety and well-being of our students and staff remains our priority.

We completed our last Catholic Schools Week Day on Friday. We had many Disney characters roaming around the school. By celebrating our special activities each Friday, the students had something fun to look forward to each week. A special thanks to the seventh & eighth graders who coordinated the activities!

Mrs. Workman is coordinating a Summer Vacation Bible School which will run the week of August 23rd from 5:30 - 8:00pm. She is looking for help in organizing the program and to help facilitate the activities. She is looking for adult volunteers, as well as students in grades 7 - 12 to help supervise the groups. This is a great way to earn Community Service hours. The next meeting will be May 13th at 7:00pm in the St. James Community Room. If you are interested in learning more or helping, please contact Mrs. Workman at tworkman@augustinianacademy.org.

St. Mary's News - April 25, 2021

God bless and keep healthy.

Application Assistance - Do you need help with filling out forms or paperwork for needed services? Contact your local CAA Family Support Coordinator 315-317-0105. Example of forms we can assist with: Housing, Snap- Food Stamps, Medicaid-Temporary Assistance, etc. It is open to everyone and anyone.

Fr. Robinson's Latest Crazy Exploit

With the changes to the Box Tops program, finding a participating product is nearly impossible. Therefore Augustinian is having a Penny Wars contest to "fill the void" (actually any American currency will be accepted, not just penny's!). Each class has a plastic jug for collection. Classes will accept change/paper currency from April 12 - June 7. The class that collects the most will win a special treat AND the best part...if the school collects $500 or more, Fr. Robinson will partake in another amusing exploit! Ideas for what this act should be are welcomed, feel free to email me your ideas-rpatejohnson@gmail.com. We will run a Facebook poll/vote to determine what Father Robinson will do. We hope this is fun for all! Look under those couch cushions, in the crevices of car seats, on store floors and wherever else you find yourself looking for spare change and send it in to school- please note if you would like your change to be added to a specific class bucket! We will provide periodic updates on Facebook so that you know how well we are doing! Thank you for your support!

“I CAN’T SERVE GOD AND MONEY”

SILICON VALLEY BUSINESSWOMAN ENTERS CONVENT

As a Deloitte executive and founder of a successful internet startup called Jetlore, 36-year-old businesswoman Montse Medina didn’t seem like an obvious candidate for the convent. Earlier this year, though, she dropped a bomb via Twitter and LinkedIn: she was giving up everything to become a contemplative Catholic nun.

As she wrote in her epic “break up letter” with the business world, the pursuit of money and prestige had left her empty. She was finally going to pursue a call to religious life that she had felt since she was young. After carefully studying various orders online, and visiting a specific community many times, Montse finally chose the Monastery of Santa Ana in Spain.

Interestingly, her genius for online marketing may not be lost in her new vocation. The nuns support themselves by making homemade pasta, pies, and pastries—then selling them via an online store.

Montse Medina is an online entrepreneur who recently became a nun.

WHY I’M LEAVING: AN EXIT LETTER

“I used all the talents that the infinite goodness of our God had given me, but I used them for my own glory and to accumulate wealth in this world. I was seeking only my own interest. And I was deceiving myself because far from making me happy it only caused me an ever-growing emptiness....

“The restlessness of my soul has led me to seek the will of God in Catholic communities, in volunteering, I even planned to found an NGO, but I could not find peace in any of these projects. Now, following the call to offer myself to the Lord in contemplative consecrated life, I have found peace of the heart....

“I have made the most important and at the same time the simplest decision of my life. I have decided, without any regrets, to stop investing in my earthly future and start investing in my future for eternal life.”

HOW TO TAKE THE LEAP

For most young women in today’s culture, the very idea of religious life seems absurd. And yet... a tiny part of the heart can wonder, ‘Could God be calling me?’ A book from a sister in New York City has advice on answering that question: Discerning Religious Life, 200pp, available at vianneyvocations.com

Ordained in a Mask

Bridgeport seminarian Brendan Blawie was dismayed when he heard that Bishop Frank Caggiano, quarantined with COVID, wasn't going to be able to ordain him. But with more than a decade of higher education, including Officer's School for the Marines, Brendan knew how to soldier on. Becoming a priest would be the culmination of a long journey from his hometown of Newton, CT to Virginia Tech, Franciscan University, Quantico, and finally, seminary in Rome. After all that, the pandemic was a small hurdle. Thankfully, Bishop James Massa from Brooklyn was able to stand in on the day of ordination. "I am filled with gratitude and joy to have arrived at this point in my life," said Fr. Brendan, "To lay down all that I am, to be configured fully to Christ as His priest."

A RETREAT IN IMAGES

What's it like to be poor on purpose? Is it embarrassing to talk to strangers about Jesus? Do you get angry when the poor are ignored? The Franciscan Friars of the Renewal (CFRs) explore these questions and open a window into their life and work in an amazing new photo book with 200 super-crisp photos and six provocative essays: A Work of God: Images of Renewal, available at vianneyvocations.com

FOR PARENTS

GROW A GARDEN AT HOME

Happiness is doing the will of God! And because you desire your children's happiness, it's vital to help them discover and accept their vocations. Here's a simple "growing guide" to help your family bear fruit:

Prepare the soil: Call a special family meeting about your priorities. Pray, "Lord Jesus, we consecrate our family and our futures to you."

Plant the seed: Say, "I would be proud of you if God called you to be a priest/sister/brother and you said yes."

Water the garden: Infuse faith into your environment. Pray as a family; get involved in youth group; invite priests and sisters to dinner.

Campus Conversion

Brother Ray Morris grew up on the Jersey Shore as a "cultural Catholic" whose family rarely went to Mass. By the time he entered Rutgers University, the Catholic faith was the furthest thing from his mind. To make some extra money, he took an office job answering phones, which just happened to be at the university's Catholic Center. "It was there I met the Brothers and everything changed," he said.

His job opened the door for Ray to give going to Mass another try. "Ten years later, I'm still here!" he jokes, then adds with sincerity, "After I encountered Jesus, the fruits of the Spirit—love, joy, and peace—quickly began to appear in my life."

Brother Ray entered the novitiate for the Brotherhood of Hope in 2014 and made his final vows in January 2021. Now it's official: his life's work is reaching out to students not unlike himself.

"I believe that colleges are the key battleground for the hearts and minds of the young in our Church," Brother Ray said. "Our method is to start by fostering real relationships with students. So basically, I walk around campus playing sports and sharing meals with students, building relationships and (hopefully) leading them closer to God. It's a mission that is fun at times and disheartening at others, but always worthwhile. It's a genuine gift to serve God and His Church in this way!"

Brother Ray belongs to the Brotherhood of Hope, a relatively new religious community whose main focus is evangelization on college campuses. They "go deep" with students, working one-on-one and in groups to help young people encounter Jesus, leave sin behind, and develop habits of virtue and daily prayer.

From the Pastor:

Today is World Day of Prayer for Vocations. Please read the important insert in today's bulletin. And don't forget to pray each day for more vocations to the priesthood, religious life and diaconate, especially here in the Diocese of Ogdensburg.

Barbara Kohler and Darren Bracy have both completed 2 terms on the St. James Parish Pastoral Council and can't run for re-election. I want to thank both of them for their faithful service to St. James and we certainly have benefitted from their service to the People of God. It is now time to elect 2 replacements. You will find a Nomination Ballot inserted into your bulletin; please nominate as many as 4 other parishioners who might like to serve on the Council. Place the Ballot either in the collection basket or the Ballot box found in the Gathering Area of the church. The election will be held in a few weeks.

For many years Bob Renaud organized and supervised the execution of the May Rosary Crusade. He did a marvelous job in putting the whole Crusade together, complete with a beautiful painted spiritual print that was given to participants. The Crusade was cancelled last year because of COVID and Bob moved to S. Carolina last summer. Therefore, it has looked like there would not be a future Crusade until this past week. The Buskey family has generously stepped forward to volunteer to help organize the event. I am very grateful to them for this generous offer. The date has been set for Friday, May 21. Please mark your calendars.

WOW! Have you driven by St. James Church at night? For many years, I have wanted to repair the flood lights in front of the church. Apparently they have not worked for many, many years. Well, thanks to John Ashcroft, Dan Leary and Nate Kepler the whole front of the church is now beautifully illuminated with brilliant light shining on the church and tower. What a difference it has made. This improvement is so appropriate as we celebrate our 200th Anniversary.

Up until COVID hit us, a wonderful small group of parishioners would meet at St. James each Sunday morning at 9am before the 10am Mass to pray the Divine Office and the Rosary. Now that we feel more comfortable about gathering, this devotional will resume next Sunday at 9am. Please join us. All safety protocols are in order: masks and social distancing.

In case you missed it: With the recommendation of the St. James Pastoral Council, the last weekend to view a videotaped Mass from St. James will be May 15/16. I am hopeful that more and more people will be able to come back to St. James, especially now that vaccinations are readily available for us.

In case you missed it: May 23 is a BIG day for us here at St. James. It is Pentecost Sunday! The St. James Choir will at long last return to enhance our worship at St. James. We have missed them very much and look forward to their return. That day is also the day we will celebrate our 200th Anniversary May event – honoring the Augustinians and the Sisters of St. Joseph for their long and distinguished service to the People of God at St. James. Father Joseph Genito, OSA will be here to help us celebrate this wonderful occasion. A lawn reception will follow the 10am Mass.

Adult Enrichment Series continues:

Beginning Tuesday evening, April 27, 2021, 7 pm in the Community Room, a series of presentations and discussions, lead by Michael Sligar will commence on the Spiritual Kingdom. God, the Blessed Trinity, Angels and demons, their interrelations, lines of authority, and the impact all of this has upon the Kingdom of Earth shall be discussed. All are welcomed.

PRAYER FOR UNITY

Eternal Father,
we praise you for sending your Son
to be one of us and to save us.
Look upon your people with mercy,
for we are divided in so many ways,
and give us the Spirit of Jesus to make us one in love.

We ask this gift, loving Father, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

The whole church watched with nervous anticipation as the visitors sat where the Martins have sat for 42 years.
